OLN

Destination Truth: Monday, December 13 – Thursday, December 16 at 8pm ET/PT

Josh Gate's investigations continue to get stranger as he searches for a dragon like creature that lives in the swamps of West Africa; a large owl of human proportions, said to be half owl, half human; an island that is haunted by the spirits of dead slaves; an unknown wildman that kidnapped a girl and held her captive; and a dinosaur like creature that is the size of an elephant. Will he track them down or will the unexplained remain unknown to the world?

Ghost Hunters: Monday, December 13 – Friday, December 17 at 10pm ET/PT

This week the Ghost Hunters team drops in for a visit to Canada as they investigate one of the nation's oldest prisons, the Cornwall Jail, where there have been reports of paranormal activity. Then the team explores Fort Henry in Kingston, Ontario, notoriously known as Canada's most haunted location, where tourist have claimed to have had encounters with ghosts. The team also visits the Congress Theater, when the lights go out, the spirits come out to play; a mansion where blood pours from the walls; and a cruise ship built at the end of WWII, where crew members have seen full body apparitions.
