

Gord Martineau
Anchor, CityNews

As a CityNews Anchor for over three decades, Gord Martineau has been providing viewers the latest in local news that matters to them weeknights on Citytv.

Born and raised in Montreal, Gord started a career in radio straight out of high school. He worked at a Halifax radio station for two and a half years then moved to the news department at Montreal's top Anglo radio station CJAD. Developing an interest in television, he did a short stint at CJCH-TV in Halifax before becoming the weekend anchor at CFCE-TV, Montreal's No. 1 English News and Entertainment Station. Since joining Citytv in 1977, Gord has earned his reputation as one of Toronto's favourite anchors.

Along with winning numerous prestigious awards for broadcasting – including a Gemini Award for Canada's best News Anchor – Gord was honoured with the 2008 Academy of Canadian Cinema and Television Humanitarian Award for his tireless work with numerous charitable organizations.

Throughout his career Gord has lent his support to a variety of charities such as the Herbie Fund, Kids Help Phone; Reena Foundation; Kidney Foundation of Canada; Canadian Breast Cancer Foundation; Association of Fundraising Professionals and the Doug Philpott Inner City Tennis Program. In 2009, he set up the Gord Martineau Foundation to offer assistance to local organizations such as the Kids Breakfast Club, the Second Chance Scholarship Fund, Global Medic, as well as the Siem Reap Childrens Hospital in Cambodia.

Throughout the course of his career Gord has been honored with numerous awards. Please see below.
